A complete description of The Gables and its amenities as well as additional amenities common to all guests of the resort are provided in detail below.

In June 2018, The Everett resort property was purchased and is now under new ownership. During 2018-2019, The Lodge at The Everett underwent extensive renovation with the new owners taking great care to honor and retain as much of each building's original structure and design while at the same time, providing guests with all new and modern amenities. The response by local resident's familiar with this beloved property as well as guests who have witnessed it for the very first time, has been nothing short of remarkable!
