The Morey at The Everett, originally built in 1920, is a Three-Season, South facing single-story, wood-sided cottage offering a total of 2 bedrooms, 1 bathroom, a fully equipped eat-in kitchen, family room and a washer & dryer. The Morey at The Everett features air-conditioning and a built-in wall heater for those cooler early Spring and Fall months and provides full living and sleeping accommodations for up to 4 people. The Morey at The Everett is located just steps from the gently sloping shoreline of beautiful Catfish Lake.

A complete description of The Morey at The Everett and its amenities as well as additional amenities common to all guests of the resort are provided in greater detail below.

In June 2018, The Everett resort property was purchased and is now under new ownership. During 2018 - 2019, The Morey at The Everett underwent extensive renovation with the new owners taking great care to honor and retain as much of each building's original structure and design as possible while at the same time, providing guests with all new and modern amenities. The response by locals familiar with this beloved property as well as guests who have witnessed it for the very first time has been nothing short of remarkable. The revival of this beautiful historical property, once a thriving resort during Eagle River's resort era, has been recaptured and ultimately transformed into a uniquely vintage vacation rental resort.

Historical Notes

The Morey at The Everett, (originally named "The Linen Room") was built in 1920 and originally served as a full-service laundry for both resort guests and resort. The Morey was originally located on the Southeast side of Everett Road but was physically moved to its present location on the resort property in 1979.

The Everett Sunroom (formerly known as the Sun Parlor), was built in 1920 and originally functioned as The Everett Resort's Main Lobby and Office until 1951. The resort's front desk was originally located in the near the fireplace and featured cubby holes that held the mail for the many guests that would spend the entire summer enjoying The Everett resort.
